

Definition of co-parenting: A continuum process by which all partners of the child welfare system works with the birth family to support reunification and meet the child's needs.

ROLES and SUPPORTS to Co-Parenting

